So I was suddenly made into a hero,
Hero. Hero(Estrard)
this smells real fishy to me, what do you guys think?
Fishy? What do you mean?
I'd like to hear the details
Watches over heroes Prince(I Das)
Yeah, so do I, start explaining.
Watches over heroes Assassin (Retval)

I feel like I've heard it somewhere before...
Estrard...
Oh?
Estrard...
Watches over heroes
Priest(Floy Legas)
no image
Wait a minute,
Estrard?
It's me,
your beloved Student!
Watches over heroes
Student(Global state)
Huh?
What you mean, Priest?
Watches over heroes
Sage(Sky Garden)
so I grew up in the slums stealing, pickpocketing, and such Whatever, I'll just start explaining here
See, I'm an orphan,

Don't you think that's weird?
and told me to become a hero
Now some guy came down from the palace and now I work as a waitress in town
But I managed to get away from that,

8 Watches over heroes: Priest
Ah!

9 Watches over heroes: Student Aaah!
Hold on a minute!

10 Watches over heroes: Prince
What is it? Priest and Student, did you remember something about Hero's world?

11 Watches over heroes: Assassin
I got a bad feeling 'bout this

12 Watches over heroes: Sage Should I start panicking?

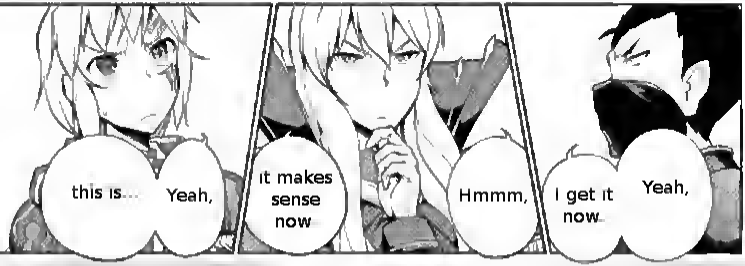
This party is horrible, I want to go home. [Active heroes side]

*Refer to volume 1 chapter 4

14 Hero_Hero
Hhhmmmm...
I see.



18 Watches over heroes_Student
Student told me there's a thread about Estrard, so I'm here!

23 Watches over heroes High School Girl
Oh, I'm sorry!
I've changed my name!
あわわ your name!
no image
High School Girl,
I was the hero in the thread that Priest just linked!
So I suppose you didn't have your memory erased?
No,
I left it as I believe that was a valuable experience for me
I did choose to opt out of future summonings though,
I want to return to a peaceful life to be notified if anything related to Estrard happened again

But I did register myself as a hero and talk to Student
27 Watches over heroes Student
A brilliant move on your part, Student!
no way!
Um, Hero, please be careful, being a hero in that world is a terrible experience
But It's not like that's a good reason to run away
You're my predecessor, huh?
I see... So that's how it is Ah...

31 Watches over heroes Priest
Please don't blame High School Girl for that, at the time it was the best option
32 Watches over heroes Sage Yeah, reading the thread so far, I have to agree on that But...
33 Watches over heroes Prince
We now have a new victim here

I'm not blaming you for anything,
Sorry about that, I said it badly, I'm sorry,
because I ran away, you...

You've also cleared up some of the questions here
In fact I sympathize with you

At first we heard rumors of how the hero had already departed, but they just stopped at some point and the monsters started appearing again.
And now the palace suddenly sends someone to tell me to become a hero, the palace then gives me "the hero's sword", and the church gives me "the hero's emblem".
The hero's emblem?
I didn't get anything of the sort back then.
37 Watches over heroes Student Something smells fishy here
no image
38 Watches over heroes Assassin
Smells? It plain out reeks!

and then the old priests around him started chanting "may god protect you" and the young priest whispered
The emblem is a bracelet, a young priest brought it out, looking pale,
may god have mercy
as he put the bracelet on me

40 Watches over heroes Assassin
That bracelet can't be good news
41 Watches over heroes Student
After you put it on, did anything happen?
no image
About that....

It does nothing but I walked around the palace, and it doesn't seem to limit me in any way.
I also thought this thing has to be something nasty,
Yeah, what's going on here?
I wonder what's going on...
no image
46 Watches over heroes Student Sage, Priest, any ideas?
47 Watches over heroes Sage Hmmm...
Perhaps it has something to do with those chants?
48 Watches over heroes Priest
That's certainly a possibility
Saying "may god have mercy" instead of "may god protect you" may have disabled the bracelet's effects
49 Watches over heroes Prince
You should ask the one who put the bracelet on you 8y the way,
have you not departed yet?

50 Hero Hero
Not yet, the princess and shrine maiden, and their escorts, haven't finished preparing yet, so I've been tossed into some place in the palace while I wait
Is it the room in the northern side of the palace with a really big painting of the previous king on the wall?
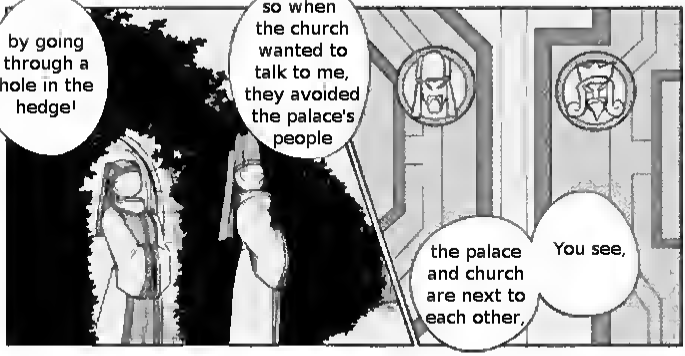
Ah, that happened to me as well!
52 Hero Hero
Yeah, that's the place
So what now?
Prince has concocted a plan!
no image
Oh,
We can always count on you, Prince!
Ah!
Uh
Well
High School Girl,
do you know of a way to reach the church from that area?



by going through a hole in the hedge!
so when the church wanted to talk to me, they avoided the palace's people You see,
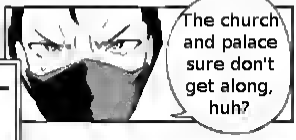
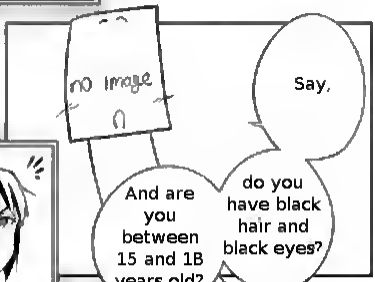
the palace and church are next to each other.



59 Hero Hero
Oh they hate each other.
They're constantly fighting over who's better and shit.
They force us normal folk to deal with all their loyalty and offerings crap, and then they treat us all like we're worthless!
Oh, and just because the country is a little big they domineer over the neighboring countries!
I'm sick of all this crap, and now make me a hero?!



61 Hero Hero
Huh? Well, yeah, why?
Black hair, black eyes, and I'm 17

And we're both the same age
That seems to be an unusual color in that country
63 Hero Hero
That's true
And you're also 17?
Hmm?
Student, your hair and eyes are black, right?
And High School girl is the same?
That means
So they just caught someone similar as a replacement they can't announce that the hero ran away Oh Lord,
why would you make Hero undergo such a trial?
no image
Someone probably thought it wouldn't matter if she just disappeared
And she's a waitress in town, right?

68 Hero, Hero
So that's how it is
It totally makes sense now
Hero,
in order to deal with this situation, you'll need to head to the church and ask that young priest some questions about the bracelet's effects, past heroes,
and about the summoning circles
The details you ask about are up to you, but that third question is important

70 Hero: Hero
Uh, okay, whatever you say
So there's a hole in that hedge?
71 Watches over heroes: High School Girl
You can see it from the window, it's across from the bed of red flowers Wait, are those flowers still blooming?
72 Hero: Hero
Found it, I'm heading over there
73 Watches over heroes: High School Girl
So that world is still seeking heroes,
I'm sorry for giving up, please be safe...
74 Watches over heroes: Assassin
This is just them covering up how they completely screwed up with you.
75 Watches over heroes: Priest
Please don't worry about it too much, High School Girl. That was a pretty serious problem back then after all.
76 Watches over heroes: Student Yeah!
NO image
77 Watches over heroes: High School Girl
Okay, thank you
78 Hero: Hero
I'm back, I asked him

80 Hero. Hero
That priest is pretty devout, he considered that whole thing to be blasphemy and answered everything
no image
Welcome back, how'd it go?
First, the bracelet It's supposed to deprive me of my will and control me, but right at the last minute,
he dispelled the effects
I knew it
It truly was something nasty
83 Hero. Hero
Now for the previous heroes
There isn't much information on them, it's mostly been erased,
but they were summoned from other worlds
no image
And the last one?
That's quite something there So they were all erased from history?
So that applies to me and the heroes before

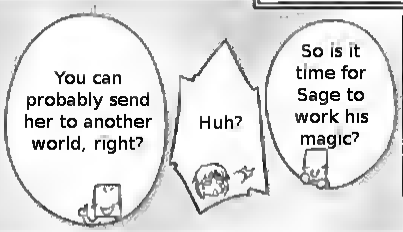
87 Hero Hero
Right, the summoning circle It's more of a general portal, the important guys regularly use it themselves
It still works for teleporting around the country, but apparently the connection to other worlds was just suddenly cut off



You can probably send her to another world, right?
Huh?
So is it time for Sage to work his magic?

I see, it makes sense now

93 Hero Hero
Hmm?
I'm near the portal with the priest Hero, where are you right now?
they'll simply pick another girl to be the hero
That won't solve anything,

I see,
Have the priest activate the circle, and leave the country it's time to escape then Do you have the hero's sword with you?
Yeah
But didn't you say that won't solve anything?
Aah Whaa?
Huh?
101 Hero Hero
This priest sure is cooperative, he's already doing it,
well,
I'll go on then Say,
won't it be pretty bad for him once they learn he helped you?
134 Hero Hero
Huh?
Ah!
Woah!
no image
Hero?!
What hap-pened?!
Are you alright?!

I accidentally grabbed the priest's hand and we both ended up in the middle of a forest!
Damn it, Assassin
Don't scare me like that right as I'm doing something!

108 Watches over heroes: Student Company!

109 Watches over heroes: Sage lol He got dragged along

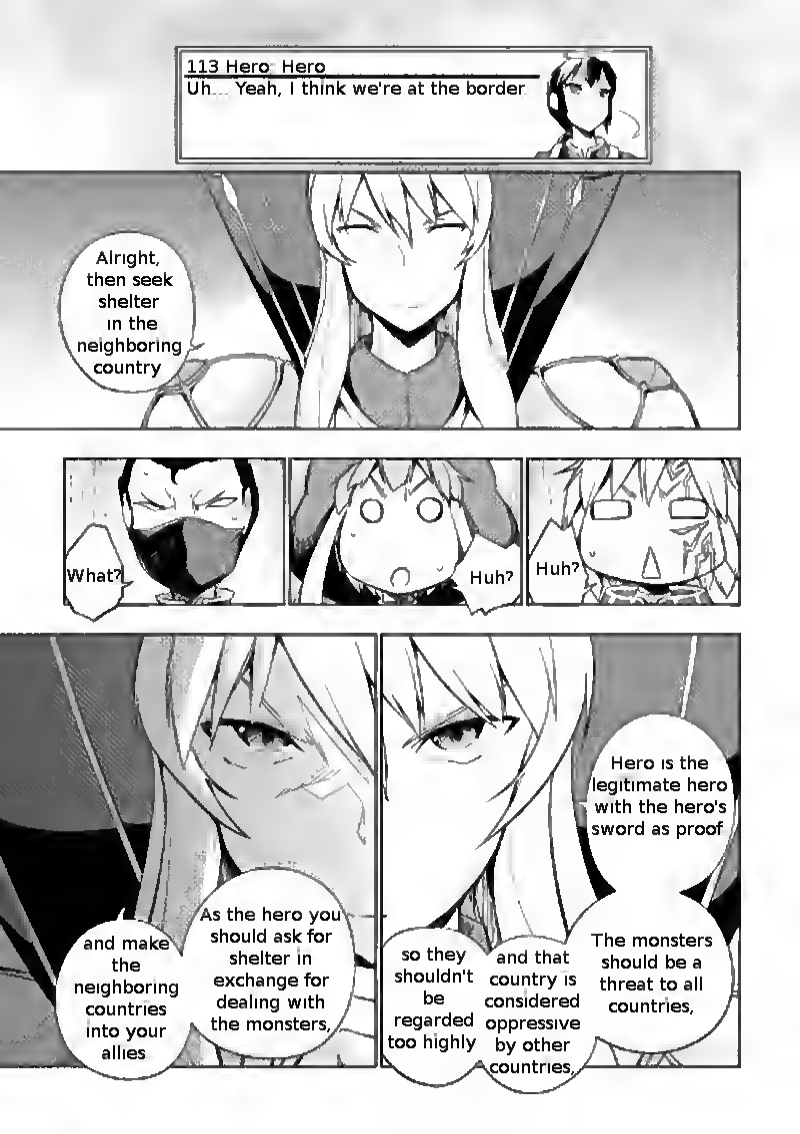
110 Watches over heroes: Priest
How reassuring. lol

111 Watches over heroes: Prince
Hero, do you know where you are?

112 Watches over heroes: High School Girl
You sure are calm, Prince...



113 Hero Hero
Uh... Yeah, I think we're at the border
Alright, then seek shelter in the neighboring country
What?
Huh?
Huh?
Hero is the legitimate hero with the hero's sword as proof
The monsters should be a threat to all countries, and that country is considered oppressive by other countries, so they shouldn't be regarded too highly
As the hero you should ask for shelter in exchange for dealing with the monsters, and make the neighboring countries into your allies
